

Self-priming pump fuel dispenser recommendatory installation standard

"A" is the height of the oil tube above the ground ( see specific models requirements )

"B" is the distance between the oil tube of different oil product ( see specific models requirements )

In addition to those specifically noted, all components and parts in the blueprint need the oil station to prepare or entrust our company to purchase.